The Pianola, the Perfect Piano Player.

The Famous METROSTYLE PIANOLA, first and greatest of all Piano-Players. No other piano-playing device is so sensitive to the human touch and mind.

The PIANOLA is by all odds the greatest boon that mechanics ever gave to unlearned lovers of music. Operated by the means of a perforated music roll, the person who never touched a piano can play perfectly and readily the masterpieces. It's a great chance for the entire family to utilize the piano!

The PIANOLA can be attached to any piano. The PIANOLA-PIANO is nothing more or less than a PIANOLA built inside one of several standard pianos. It is equally suitable for hand-playing or by means of the PIANOLA.

The easiest terms prevail to all here. You pay as you wish on any instrument. PIANOLAS, $250 up; PIANOLA-PIANOS, $550 up.

joint committee. They were reported through Mr. G. K. Pollock, chairman. Mr. W. L. White made a brief, but eloquent speech, and they were adopted by a rising vote.

The R. R. Committee was directed by its wife, Mrs. Dilling to Boston to meet in the Council chamber at 2:30 P. M. today, and to purchase a suitable plan for the funeral. Here are the resolutions:

By the Rushing River. From the diameter line of the semi-circle, the ground breaks abruptly in the falls of James River at one of its most romantic views.

Here the river dashes in hurrying circles over myriad boulders and rushes between hundreds of little islands. In the summer these islands are a field of green, and the foliage is a soft, silvery white of countless places and from which swirl up a misty spray.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, October 18.—A simple and brief funeral service was held today for the late Mrs. Jefferson Davis at the Hotel Majestic. Rev. S. A. Beach, of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. J. George S. Smith, chaplain of the Southern Society, and Rev. J. L. G. Smith, pastor of St. Timothy's Church. The service was private, only the immediate family representing the United Daughters of the Confederacy and a small number of friends being present. Numerous wreaths covered the casket, one of which was sent by President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Other floral tributes came from the governors of many Southern States and from various societies of which Mrs. Davis was a member.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis—A Tribute of Respect.

Great "Widow of our Southland." We lay them down to rest. Beside our grand old President. And feel that it is best.

A life of love—a life well spent. Is harpings of joy. Who would not lay life's burdens down For bliss without alloy?

But thy name, like sweetest music, Shall fall on heart and ear; For it is linked with all that past Which Southern hearts hold dear.

These links of our Confederacy—Like footprints on the sand—Are past, but glorious memories Endure around our land.

Our Southland! Oh! the magic Of those days forever gone. Our Presidents! Our Generals! Our matrons—one by one.

Pass like phantoms in a vision, Most glorious to behold; Their deed of noble loyalty History shall unfold.

Oh, mysteries of mystery! They are passed for this away; Thy hands have clasped these dear to thee.

For Heaven's eternal day, Mrs. W. W. DAVIS.

It was not known yesterday afternoon at the Adjutant-General's office whether other Colonel William J. Perry, of the Seventy-first, or Colonel C. C. Vaughan, of the Seventy-third, will attend the funeral of Mrs. Davis.
